

Private Lessons

Private instruction is a great way for your player to get individual attention. Players will receive 30 minute sessions on hitting, pitching, fielding, catching or base running. Each player can choose the instructor of their choice.

Each instructor schedules his or her own lessons and has the right to set their own prices. Generally, our staff charges $30 per session with lesson packages available (10 lessons for $250 paid at the first lesson).

Our goal is to have the most competitive price for private instruction in the area. For more information on Private Instruction contact The Hack Shack today!
